

Christmas 2005 @ the Civic Theatre

The Civic Theatre in association with Storytellers Theatre Company present

The Red Hot Runaways

By Mary Elizabeth Burke Kennedy

Based on 'The Musicians of Bremen' by the Brothers Grimm

Once upon a time the Civic Theatre & Storytellers Theatre Company had a wonderful idea to retell the story of the musicians of Bremen, so we found this amazing recipe to give you the best show around this Christmas

1 fabulous writer
1 super talented director,
6 brilliant actors/ musicians
A large dollop of groovy composer
Garnished with an atmospheric set
Mix together then serve

So visit the Civic Theatre this Christmas and join Danny the donkey, Prince Hal the greyhound, Coco the cat and Reggie the rooster on their many adventures.

Can they escape a nasty end?

Can they overcome hard times?

Can they continue to follow their dreams?

A great show for all the family that will have you singing all the way home.

So don't delay book today

Box Office: 01 4627477

Tues 20th December - Sunday 8th January 2006 @ 3pm & 7pm

School performances available

Mon 16th - Fri 27th January 2006 @ 10am & 12.30pm

Admission: €20 & €14 Children, €58 family ticket for 4 persons

For further information contact Kerry @ 01 4627460 / civictheatred24@eircom.net