

THE CIVIC

WINTER-SPRING 2026

WELCOME!

Welcome to The Civic's New Year Season. As we step into a new year at The Civic, we're delighted to present a vibrant and uplifting programme for January to April—one that celebrates exceptional artistry, local creativity, and the many diverse voices that make our community what it is.

This season, we mark International Women's Day with a special event honouring women's stories and achievements. We also welcome back two of Ireland's finest performers: Pat Kinevane, with his multi-award-winning masterpiece 'Silent', and Mikel Murfi, returning with the much-loved 'The Man in The Woman's Shoes'.

Continuing to grow and champion dance at The Civic, John Scott brings 'Hyperactive', a playful yet boundary-pushing work that stretches dance and horseplay to exhilarating limits. We're proud to support local voices too, including Martha Knight, who presents her new play 'The King of All Birds'.

We also present 'Mr. Bergmann of Deadmans Point' by Ronan Dempsey—an intriguing true story of a man who chose to step outside the systems that define identity and presence. This thoughtful and unusual piece invites us to consider how we exist in the world, without sensationalism or distressing themes.

Our music programme continues to flourish with a performance by acclaimed Indian musician Sougata Roychowdhury, recognised as one of the most exciting emerging voices in Hindustani classical music. Festival favourites such as the Mother Tongues Festival return, and our own Education Department begins the year with a busy schedule, including the Tenderfoot programme and our new Primary Schools music initiative, The School Yard Band.

All this is joined by our trademark mix of music, comedy and performance that brings colour, curiosity and joy to the darkest months of the year.

We look forward to welcoming you to The Civic throughout 2026 for a season filled with imagination, connection, and unforgettable experiences.

Warm regards,
Donal Shiels
